MoinMoin is the software used to power this website. All ESRs will be given an account and an area on the site which they can use as they see fit (within reason!) to record their thoughts about and progress on the project. These areas will be open to the public, so don't post unpublished results here, and always consult your supervisor if you are at all unsure as to what material can be made public.

More info will appear here in due course, but in the mean time please take a look at the gentle introduction on the MoinMoin website.
